

Make Winter Flying Easy with 1-Night Class December 8th

Learn Procedures for Your Plane and You

What makes winter flying different than other time of year? How does that affect you? Your plane? Your approach to flying? Get all these answers in the class.

Taught by Glenn A. Butts, CFII and Peter T. Hupfer, A&P, IA

What You'll Learn:

How to Get Your Aircraft Ready

- Whether you own or rent
- Plug in / Tanis vs. preheat
- Hangar vs. tie-down
- Oil usage, run-up

Decision-making in Winter Weather

- How cold is too cold?
- Identify good weather vs. bad weather
- How to face frost and snow
- Icing: what it is & how to avoid it

How to Get Yourself Ready

- Selecting the most appropriate airport
- Requirements for renters / Guidelines for owners
- Suggested gear to handle cold weather

Your Class Includes

- Ground demonstration
- Winter flying checklist
- FAA wings credit

Winter Operations Class: to Make Winter Flying Easy for Your Plane & You

Taught by Glenn A. Butts, CFII
& Peter T. Hupfer, A&P, IA

- 6:30 – 9:00 pm
- Ground demonstrations
- Checklist
- FAA wings credit

$20 per person

Location: West Bend Municipal Airport
West Bend Air

Sign up!

Call
(262) 334-5603

WBAIR
BUSINESS PEOPLE FLYING BUSINESS PEOPLE

West Bend Air, Inc.
Rental & Flight School